

I FEEL IT TOO

who would have thought this would happen to me who would have thought this would happen to you here we are in each other's arms 'cause it feels like the right thing to do ya baby.....i feel it too i don't really care how long it takes i don't really care about your past we're just two happy lovers embracing something new

it doesn't really matter who works the controls it's more about body than it is a bout soul i promise i'll like whatever you do
