

MIRACLE

praying for a miracle
while I'm waiting for the bus there are those who never struggle then there's the rest of us

while I watch the river rise life went from fun to dangerous before my very eyes

'cause there's nothing else I can do I never thought the spiritual would be my point of view the miracle you ordered is on its way it was sent by Fed Ex yesterday thanks for your prayers and your money too is there anything else we can do for you

waiting for the bus
the story of me
the story of you
the story of the two of us whoever wrote the story of you wrote the story of the two of us

hanging on to hope

praying for myself my dreams are books I have yet to read waiting on the shelf

had to sell my gold gave my coat to a beggar now I'm feeling cold

wish I had some gold the world got really crazy and I'm feeling really cold then I gave my coat to a beggar he needed it more than me said he used to be a player said he used to be like me

as I watch the river rise it went from fun to dangerous
I'd like to get my coat back but the beggar is long gone all I have are these words I write to help me get along

some are lucky and never struggle
