

The way of the world

waterproof desert
bulletproof sky
stars going nova
in the blink of an eye

landscapes of solitude
simplicity and peace
volunteers at the food bank preparing a feast

a life of poverty
a life of crime
skip the dishes
save some time

the privileged lens
sees it all
make sure you don't forget to call
if there's any little thing you need
we'll be right there
to watch you bleed
